

The Barony of the Cleftlands & the Shire of Eastwatch present

The Second Bardic Roundhouse

June 26-28, 2009

Site open from 5pm Friday to noon Sunday

The Bardic Roundhouse is a gathering of the growing bardic community in northern Oaken and of our neighbors and friends - bards, aspiring bards, and those who just enjoy listening. We'll sing and play and tell tales together, camp and eat together, and exchange a little knowledge. We are keeping the cost low (and inclusive of meals) for this get-together in a lovely rural setting.

Activities

Bardic circles, classes, challenges, and a bardic coffee house for jamming, tech-talk and gossip. Special activities for novice bards.
